

Exhibitor Advisory Council (EAC)

The Heart Rhythm Society Exhibitor Advisory Council (EAC) is comprised of corporate representatives from companies participating as exhibitors in the Annual Scientific Sessions for Heart Rhythm Society. The EAC serves a critical role in educating, informing and advising the Heart Rhythm Society leadership regarding the successful operation of the Society's Annual Scientific Sessions.

Individuals who are interested in participating in the activities of the EAC should contact Deborah Howley, Vice President, A. Fassano & Company, for more information. If you have any comments or concerns regarding Heart Rhythm Society's Technical Exhibit Program, please contact any EAC member listed below, or call A. Fassano & Company.
